Ways to Create a Meaningful Visit Outdoor/Indoor

- ◆ Speak slowly and clearly, using short sentences to help communicate. Allow your loved one time to respond
- ◆ Making eye contact. Make sure you are smiling under your mask—it shows in our eyes!
- ◆ We have voice enhancers and headphones for residents who find the visit difficult because of hearing impairments
- ◆ Read a short story to your family member
- ◆ Play music during the visit
- ◆ Try to keep conversation upbeat, and positive and not dwell too much on the pandemic
- ◆ Calling another family member on your cell phone throughout the visit and having a group chat!
- ◆ Bringing a prop of some sort, i.e.: dry erase board to write on, old photos, or something of meaning, that you could hold up and show, as a conversation starter (remembering that we ask you not to pass things to each other throughout the visit)

Fall Farmer's Market

Tuesday September 22nd

10am-3pm We will be sampling the fall fruit harvest!

Recreation—Norma Restivo

The recreation staff have been coming up with creative ways to bring smiles to our residents. A big request is being able to enjoy seasonal fruits! They created a rollin' watermelon cart and delivered juicy slices to everyone!

We continue to receive and share the pen pal letters. They have been great ways to connect us to our communities during this time of social distancing and feeling of isolation. The letters generate discussion, allow residents to interact in a meaningful way and are a tangible way to share memories, create new friendships and support social engagement.

BEING SIGNS OF LOVE

Jesus' whole life was a witness to the Father's love, and Jesus calls his followers to carry on that witness in his Name. We, as followers of Jesus, are sent into this world to be visible signs of God's unconditional love. Thus, we are judged not first of all by what we say but by what we live. When people say of us, "See how they love one another," (see John 13:35; 1 Peter 1:22,23) they catch a glimpse of the Kingdom of God that Jesus announced and are drawn to it as by a magnet.

In a world so torn apart by rivalry, anger and hatred, we have the privileged vocation to be living signs of a love that can bridge divisions and heal wounds.
