Preachers Ponderings

For July, our chapel focus is the "Ordinary Time" in the Church calendar. A misnomer really, as our attention is drawn to the work of communicating the Gospel message, something not so ordinary. Christians spread the word just as a farmer throws seed out in the field. And as that farmer trusts the sun and rain for that seed to germinate and grow, we trust God's Spirit. (We hope also for that work to continue in us as well.) We contribute as well, through our witness (what we say and do). May God continue to use us as his instruments of grace and may this month be extra-ordinary!
