

Some May Moments...

Preacher's Ponderings

This June, the lectionary will focus on the Apostle Paul's second letter to the Corinthian church with much focus on the 4th and 5th chapters. This Sunday we are reminded about our life of faith, how we carry around the light of Jesus in bodies that are as fragile as clay pots. Though we experience hardship and trial, are perplexed, and face death, we are not destroyed or abandoned by God or driven to despair. Those struggles in our bodies are what we share with the suffering Christ. But likewise, in our perseverance, our communal love and care for each other, we reveal to the world the life of Jesus. May we experience this grace.
