Welcome Back Chelsea!!

A message from Chelsea...

As my maternity leave winds down, I am looking forward to returning to Pleasant Manor to rejoin the staff, residents and family members! I have enjoyed the last year of becoming a mom to my son Logan. We've enjoyed spending time at the zoo, going for walks, starting swimming lessons as well as learning and growing together.

For those that don't know me, I have worked at Pleasant Manor for almost 15 years, starting as a casual Therapeutic Recreationist and working my way to Therapeutic Recreation Supervisor. I have a diploma in recreation and leisure and a degree in Therapeutic Recreation. I enjoy and look forward to providing meaningful and purposeful activities to residents.

A big thank you to Olivia for filling in for me! I'll see everyone on February 24!

Clothing Reminder

Please remember when bringing in new clothes for your loved one that you leave them at the nursing station so they can be sent down to laundry and immediately labeled.

Preacher's Ponderings

February continues the season of Epiphany, the revelation of the light of Jesus Christ as the hope for all nations. Within our current political climate and the spectre of economic and environmental challenges looming over us, it may be easy to feel covered in shadow. Yet, this light of Jesus is what changes our perspective. Not that we will escape these difficulties, but that we can face them with peace and even joy - for Jesus has overcome the world! This month let us focus on the good news given to us from the Jesus' sermon on the mount: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God." (Luke 6:20). Let's encourage each other with these words of hope.
