The Glory of The Grey! Pastor Jim

We live in a culture and society that idolizes youthfulness, and looks down on, and tries to undo, the aging process. As a result, seniors are often marginalized, and some have even called those who are living out their senior years... 'The forgotten generation', and they are not missed!

TV commercials and advertising flood our screens with products and procedures to erase wrinkles, cosmetically cover ageing, and colorize grey hair. One such commercial encouraged potential customers buy their product so that they 'don't look their age'! We are told... 'You don't have to 'look your age' ...as if that's a bad thing!

As a result, seniors can look negatively at their stage of life, as insignificant, useless and worthless, to themselves and others.

But looking 'youthful' and healthy does not require one to deny their age, or, to seek to 'undo' the natural process of aging!

We all desire to stay youthful, healthy, active and to look one's best. And yes, the aging process does bring with it many challenging conditions... lessening ability to do physical things, more susceptibility to fatigue, vulnerability to illnesses, and decreased mental and memory abilities. I can attest to that! Now, when I forget something, I have often said, 'I still have photographic memory... I'm just seem to be out of film!'

As much as we may yearn for the days of youth, we should not look down on the age we are, and the blessings and rewards that can come with it!

Aging & The Bible

In the Bible, aging is seen as a reward and a blessing! It's primary take on aging is not the physical process, but rather the personal and spiritual achievement that it can mean. In Psalm 91:16 God says about the faithful, "With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation." The Lord also says in Deuteronomy 6:2, if we remain obedient, 'your days may be long'!

The Word of God views gray hair positively as a "crown of glory" and a sign of wisdom, honor, and a righteous, long life, contrasting the strength of youth with the experience of age, and is linked to God's promise of sustaining his people through all stages of life, even into old age.

Proverbs 16:31-33 states, "A gray head is a crown of glory; It is found in the way of righteousness."

Proverbs 20:29 says,

"The glory of young men is their strength, And the honor of old men is their gray hair."

Honoring The Aged!

For Christians, old age is not to be ridiculed, marginalized, neglected, or despised! Life is a blessing from the Lord! And a long life is to be a treasured investment of many blessings from His hand!

As The Lord Himself says, "You shall stand up before the gray head and honor the face of an old man, and you shall fear your God: I am the LORD" (Leviticus 19:32).

Let's take to heart the Words of The Lord and cherish the years He has given us and see them as a blessing to be thankful for, and to use them for His glory and the good of those around us!

Daily Bread: Deep Roots

As Douglas Kent, a landscape architect, toured a charred Los Angeles neighborhood after the city's raging 2025 wildfires, he encountered a shocking surprise—trees, alive and green, right next to melted cars and burned buildings. Many of them bore lush palms and leaves, abundant fruit, and strong trunks and branches. How?

After two consecutive rainy winters, the trees' roots had reached deep into the soil to draw moisture, carrying it to branches and leaves. In a fire, they proved resistant. "What I saw," said Kent, "was that if you were deep-rooted, you survived."

Our faith during the fiery trials of life can be like that. As we set our spiritual roots deep in Christ and His love, we become "like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit" (Jeremiah 17:8).

Jeremiah, who never minced words, warned that those who trust in "mere flesh" are "cursed" (v. 5). "That person will be like a bush in the wastelands; they will not see prosperity when it comes." Instead, "they will dwell in the parched places of the desert, in a salt land where no one lives" (vv. 5-6). How much better to trust in God! Well-watered by His sustaining love, we thrive even in raging times, bearing spiritual fruit in Him.

Jeremiah warned the unrepentant, idolatrous people of Judah that God would exile them to Babylon for their unfaithfulness (Jeremiah 25:8-11). God persistently and patiently urged them to repent before it was too late (35:15) and promised restoration and blessing once discipline was complete (31:23-28). In chapter 17, Jeremiah contrasts the curses on the ungodly with the blessings on the godly (vv. 5-8). In language reminiscent of Psalm 1:1-3, the prophet proclaims: "Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord... They will be like a tree planted by the water" (Jeremiah 17:7-8). In contrast, cursed are those who "turn their hearts away from the Lord... with no hope for the future" (vv. 5-6 nlt). In times of adversity, Jeremiah reminds us that our security, stability, faithfulness, and fruitfulness are rooted in our trust in God, not in men.

All in June

By William Henry Davies

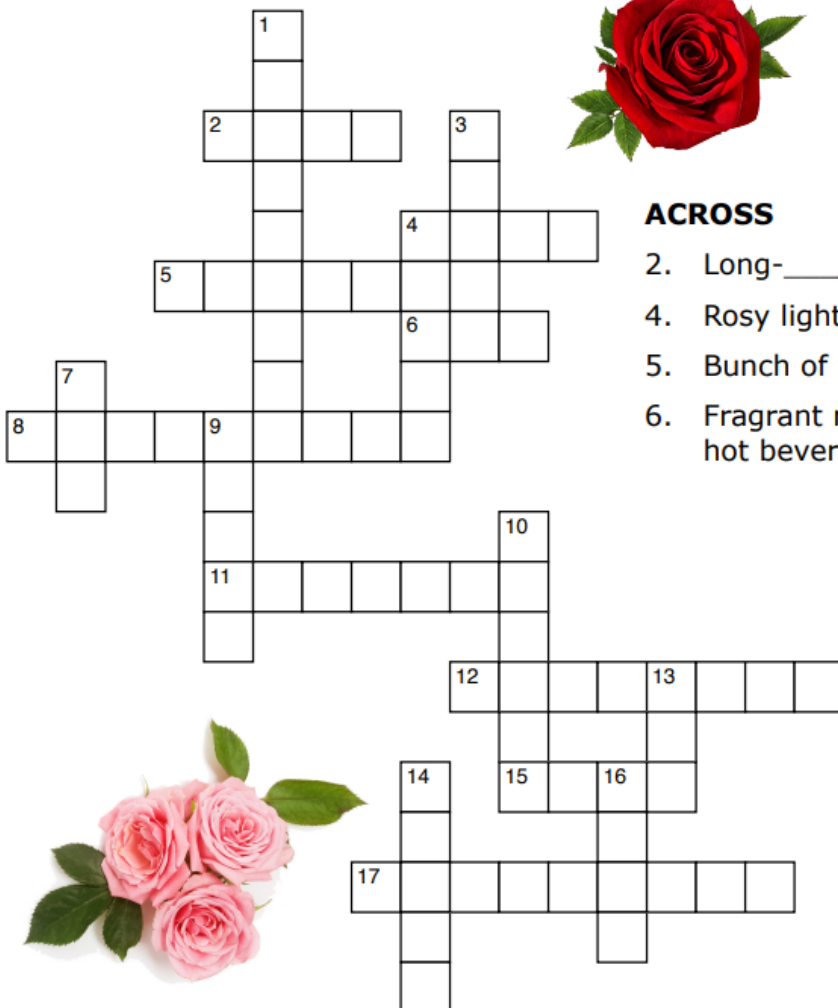

A week ago I had a fire
To warm my feet, my hands and face;
Cold winds, that never make a friend,
Crept in and out of every place.

Today the fields are rich in grass,
And buttercups in thousands grow;
I'll show the world where I have been--
With gold-dust seen on either shoe.

Till to my garden back I come,
Where bumble-bees for hours and hours
Sit on their soft, fat, velvet bums,
To wriggle out of hollow flowers.
